Paragraphs

Alright boys,
here you go!

One venti
dark roast coffee,
black, and one tall
eggnog latte.

Heavier on the nog.

Thanks, my little brother here doesn't get much coffee at home,
haha!

Hope you enjoy the drinks, cuties! You come here often?

Yeah, used to stop by on my way to school all the time.

Mmmmm!

And right before I started to help you with your schooling, too!

All of this began when I was getting ready for a day at the beach with Alex, and he got ahold of my phone to take a pic in the mirror.

He said he was taking the photo for me, since he knew that I liked the outfit but that he couldn't actually wear it to a public beach.

I made a mental note to help this little shutterbug know what was appropriate photo material.

He knew not to take videos, after that time with my old phone and the online storage incident....

Thank god mom and dad can barely work a microwave, much less the NAS they had me wire up.

At times, it's kinda hard to imagine that mom manages a team of software engineers...

And it was in the middle of being absorbed in those kinds of thoughts that Alex took advantage of me!

One game of 'big brother swimming trunks keep-away' later and I finally had the chance to collect myself.

While formulating a plan to keep my loving would-be pornographer away from a salacious lifestyle, I decided I had best dispose of his handiwork.

Yet I found myself pausing before I could clear away those nude shots.

... I didn't look half bad in them.

What the heck, eh?

Even doing it myself in the mirror, I started realizing I had a little bit of a bod going on!

Years of wrestling with Alex had started to pay off...

It was mostly just to test out the cameras on this new hardware, I swear!

I didn't really have any reason to take pictures of myself...

...so I opened up a Chitter.

I didn't think it would be much at first, but after a couple days I started to get comments and likes. It turned out to be kinda fun!

It was just photos of myself in different underwear I had lying around, never really paid much attention to that sorta clothing before.

But as luck would have it, the first time I tried to do something a bit spicier for Chitter, Alex had to walk in on me!

Tail hiked and everything...

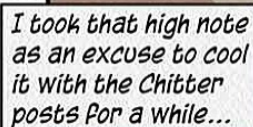

I told my little brother that it was just some innocent photos for people on the internet.

Nothing like that, uh, "dirty" stuff that he saw on my computer before. But he thought it was cool!

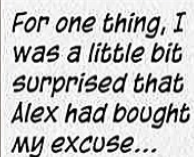

Not telling him that I was actually thinking of taking things a bit lewder, I agreed to let him show off some of his undies too.

For some reason that's still my most popular Chitter upload...

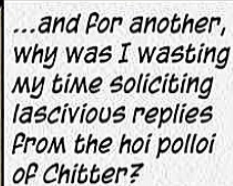

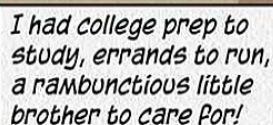

I took that high note
as an excuse to cool
it with the Chitter posts for a while...

For one thing, I was a little bit surprised that Alex had bought my excuse...

...and for another,
why was I wasting
my time soliciting
lascivious replies
from the hoi polloi of Chitter?

I had college prep to
study, errands to run,
a rambunctious little brother to care for!

And despite my Chitter
abstinence, the summer
certainly wasn't lacking for excitement...

...For one thing, I Finally got a driver's license! That was pretty exciting!

I even got to take Alex out for a camping trip, with just the two of us!

Not that there wasn't plenty of Pun things to do at home. At least, when mom and dad were out, that is.

I ordered a bunch of gear during my first Poray into Chitter.

And all that stuff started to arrive, surely enough...

And there's my little cake boy, off again.

Kind of hard to believe that it's been, what...

Two... Two and a half years since I started helping out with Alex's schooling?

Kind of a good thing I haven't gone off to college yet.

Not that mom or dad would let me.

'Too young to be on your own' but apparently not too young to help raise your little brother.

Seeing that tail of his wagging never gets old...

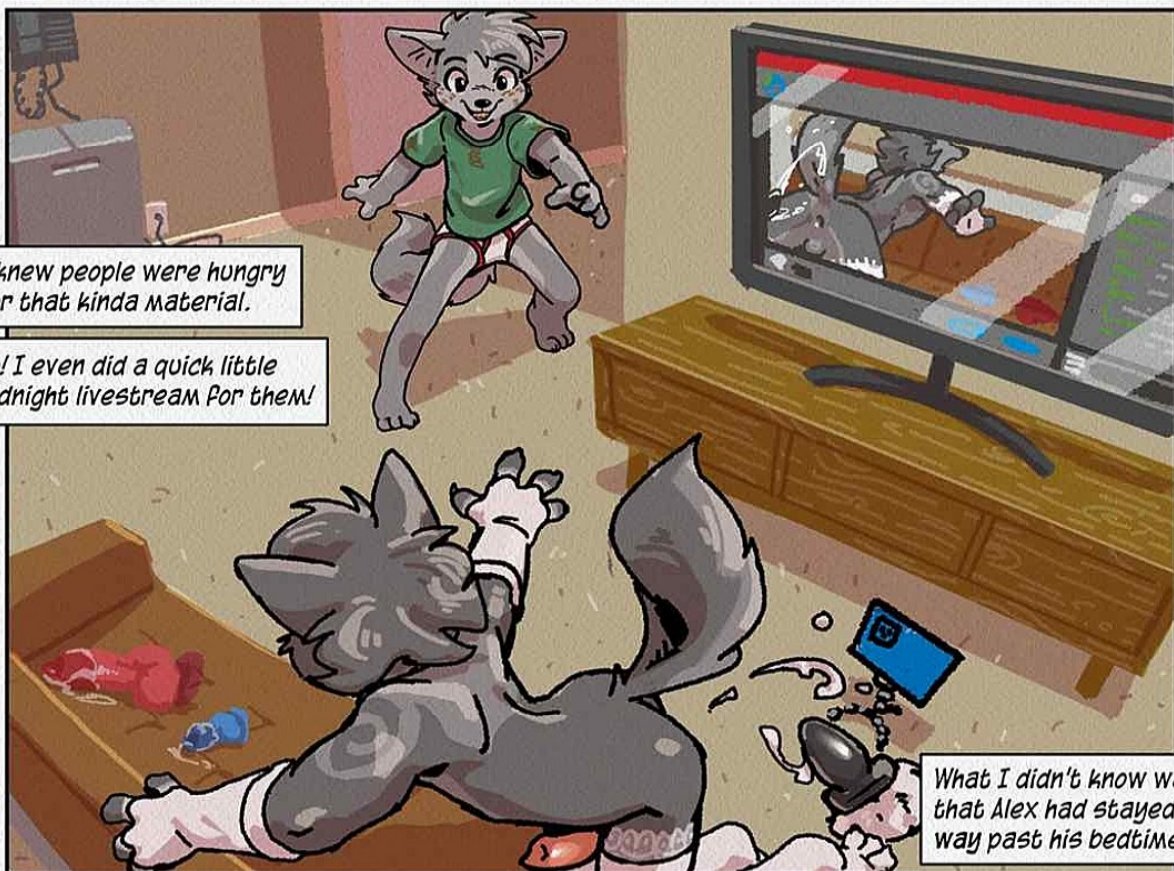

Usually out of happiness...

...other times, Alex's tail gets wagging out of, uhh... eagerness.

Like that time I finally gave in and started to make something lewd for Chitter.

I knew people were hungry for that kinda material.

So! I even did a quick little midnight livestream for them!

What I didn't know was that Alex had stayed up way past his bedtime.

ThankPully I was able to at least kill the livestream before Alex started to get rowdy!

Can't really blame him I suppose, after the amount of times I've acted on similar impulses...

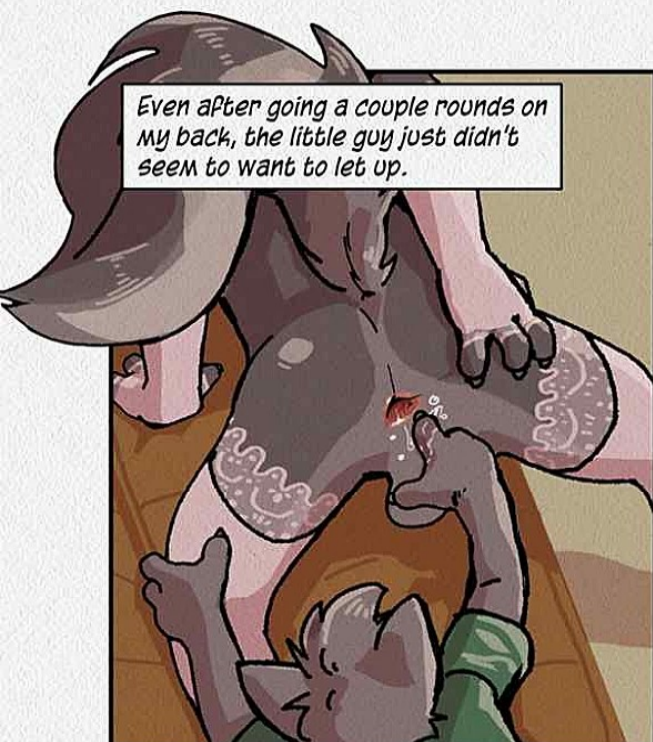

Still, I wasn't really expecting to be Pucked on the Family sofa by My little brother as Midnight came around!

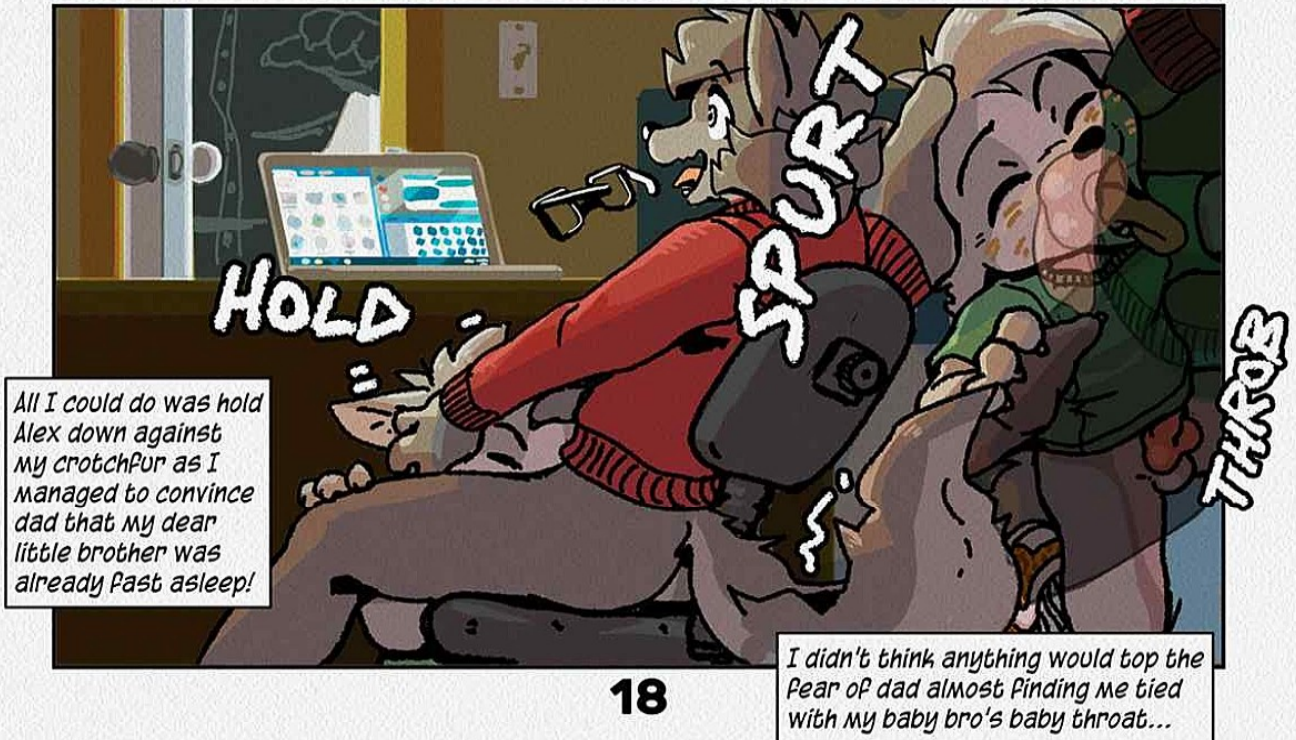

My hope was that he'd tucker himself out on my tail and get to sleep.

...but then I didn't ever think I'd be walking in on Alex recording himself riding a dragon dick just a week later, either!

Usually I just read him a bedtime story, not get a new one to tell.

I tried to explain to him that I was almost eighteen, and that made it kinda-sorta, maybe almost alright!

But he said he was almost twelve, and he didn't see the difference!

At least I got him to agree to stop taking my phone. And more importantly, to stop making recordings or anything on his own.

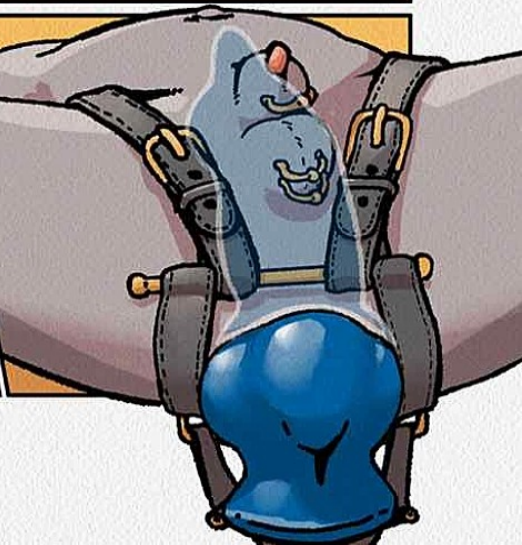

It turned out Alex was a natural at showing off for the camera.

We made a few videos of Alex using some toys, and I'd be lying if I said I didn't enjoy them.

It almost had me wishing that he actually had made a Chitter account!

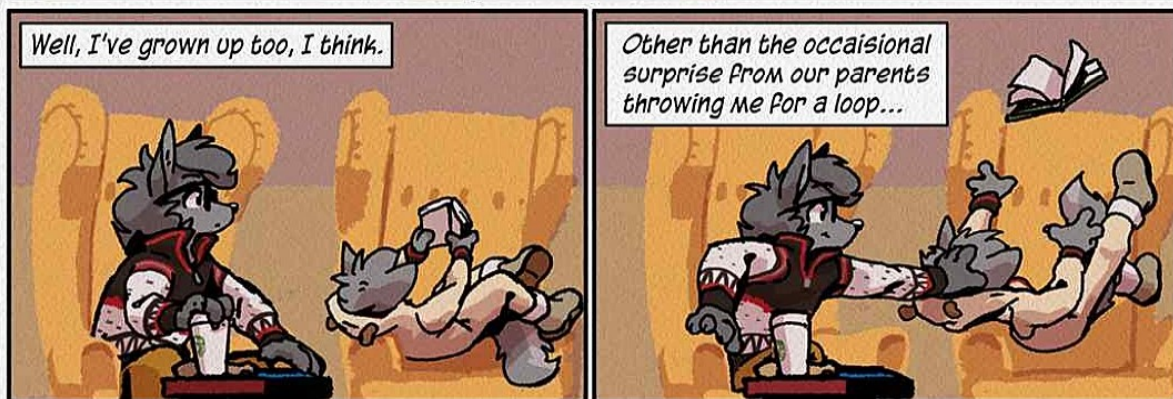

But that would've been really bad...

To Alex's credit, he's really calmed down a lot.

He doesn't even try to grope me on the bus or anything anymore!

I guess that's a sign that he's really growing up.

Well, I've grown up too, I think.

Other than the occasional surprise from our parents throwing me for a loop...

I've been managing to keep up with the odd job from mom and dad just fine.

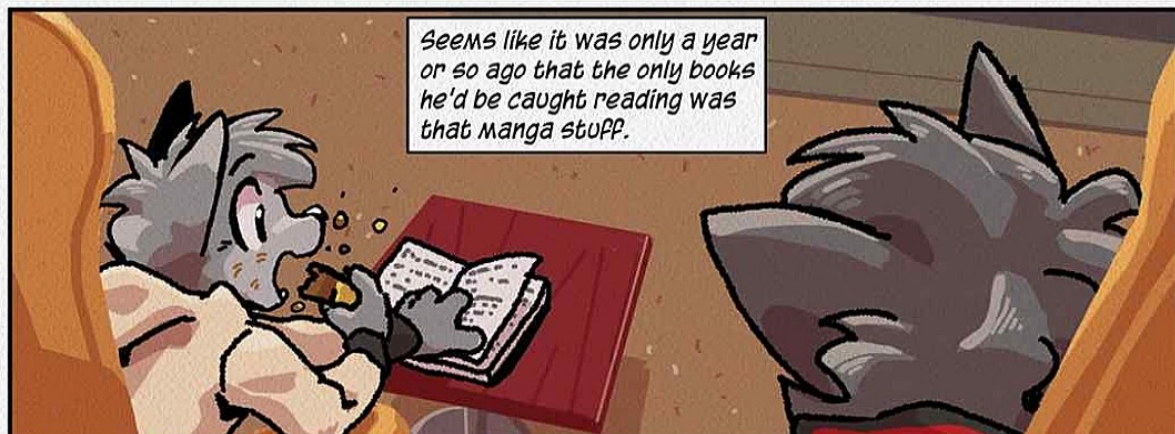

Along with keeping an eye on this former-hell-raiser.

I mean, look at that! He's been sitting there quietly all this time I've been reminiscing.

Nose buried in a book like I used to do.

Seems like it was only a year or so ago that the only books he'd be caught reading was that manga stuff.

This is the kind of milestone that you want to remember!

Something that mom and dad will get a kick out of too.

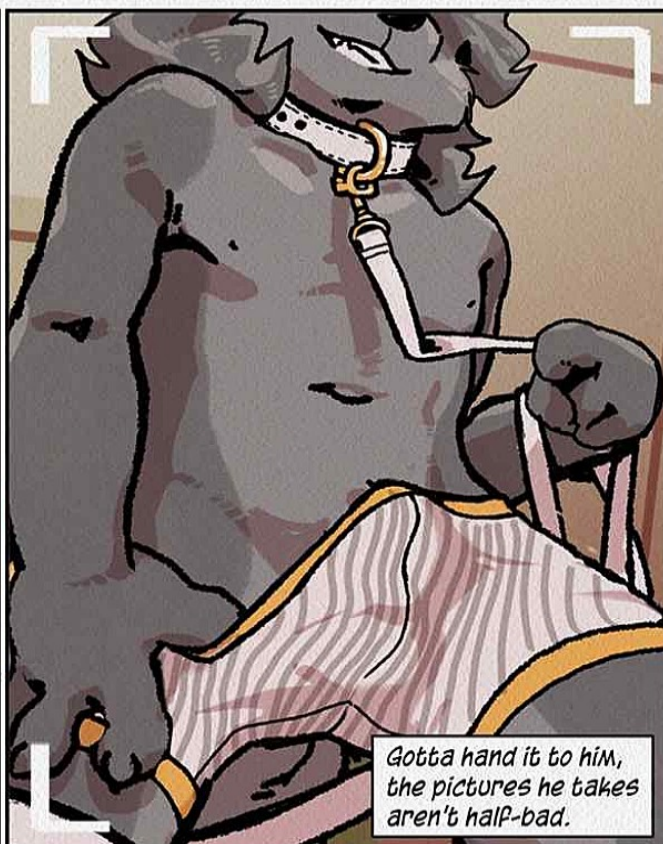

Just have to make sure I don't send some of this...

...other memory-jogging material...

At least Alex seems content to play "documentary maker" now.

Gotta hand it to him, the pictures he takes aren't half-bad.

Though I have had to start cropping some of the pics before posting to Chitter...

With the summer in full swing, Alex and I had plenty of time to spend romping around in the woods behind our house.

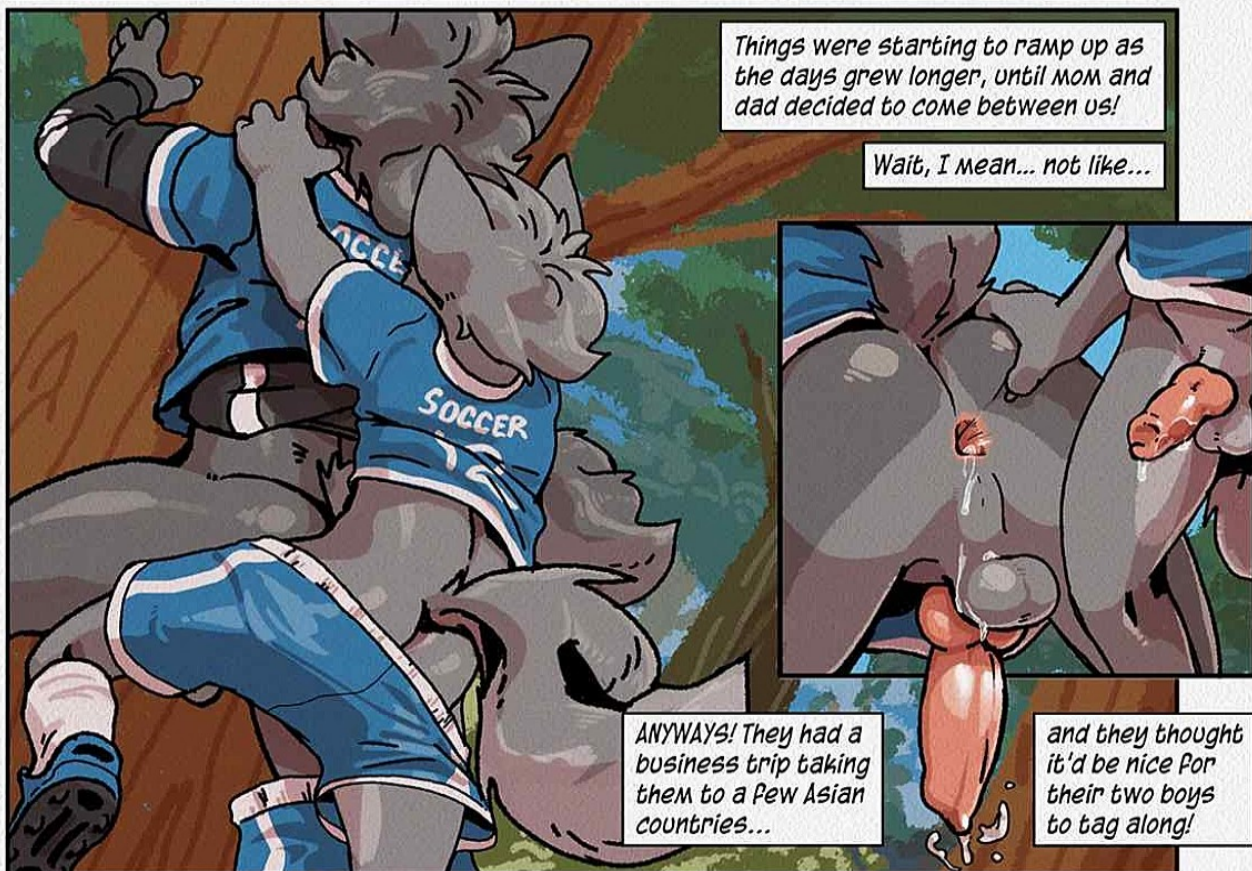

Precocious as ever, there was no shortage of opportunities for Alex to get in some practice handling a camera.

As discreet Alex had learned to be, I didn't really mind involving him in a little excursion here or there.

Things were starting to ramp up as the days grew longer, until mom and dad decided to come between us!

Wait, I mean... not like...

ANYWAYS! They had a business trip taking them to a few Asian countries...

and they thought it'd be nice for their two boys to tag along!

As it turned out, our parents basically ditched Alex and I in hotel rooms while they were off in business meetings of some sort or another.

Left to our own devices Alex and I went poking around the various cities we found ourselves in.

We even got some cute souvenirs here and there!

The Japanese leg of the trip was by far the most memorable part of our journey.

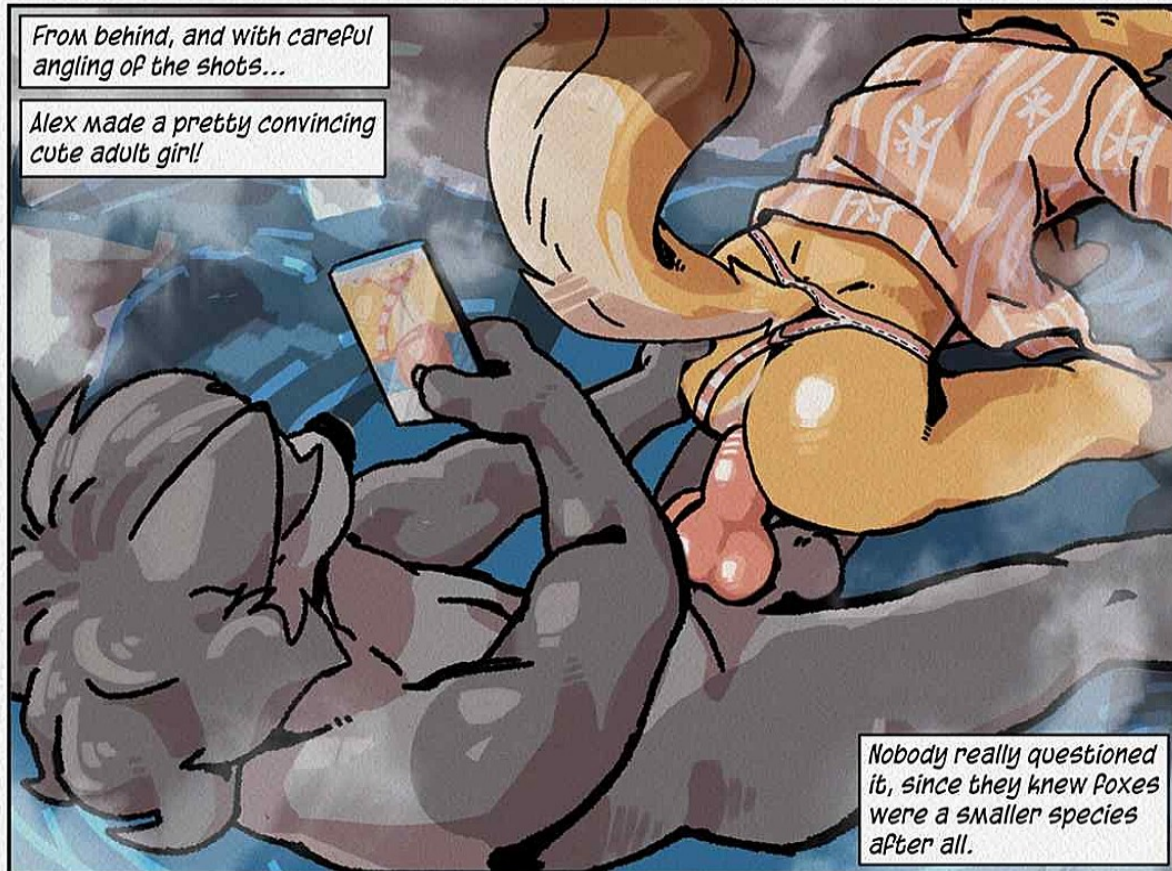

And not just because of the cute outfits that Alex and I wore during it!

From behind, and with careful angling of the shots...

Alex made a pretty convincing cute adult girl!

Nobody really questioned it, since they knew Foxes were a smaller species after all.

Probably could've put up a video and gotten away with it too considering Alex's high pitched voice wa-

-wait a sec, yeah...

That wasn't such a great idea.

Uploading a video with Alex would have been a really bad idea.

Reaaaaally should delete those Chitter posts, too.

Like right now.

Hmm... slow day.

Still not a whole lot of people around yet.

Nobody to notice the terrible evidence I was just disposing of.

Not even Alex is paying me much heed now.

Pretty soon our days of hormone fueled debauchery will be over...

...no more blowies down by the lake...

...or any teasing gropes
at the urinals...

...probably not gonna get many underwear peepshows as we get older, either...

Maybe cooling it
on our escapades is for the best.

Who knows how far we might've taken things if we kept on like we were?

Alex could've taken me up on the dare of doing things in the park at night, like we used to egg each other on with...

Who knows what other ideas
Alex might come up with...

I'm pretty sure he stays off of my computer these days, so he probably didn't watch any of those weird videos in my history...

Not that I'm really into the stuff, but some of the gear is sorta... neat looking?

Maybe best not to push my luck.

With how carried away I used to get when the ol' hormones would kick into overdrive,

I used to think that it might have been better if Alex were in charge instead!

Started to wonder if I needed one of those little restraining devices to keep me from thinking with my dick.

But that's all in the past.

Past me might've been overcome with lust, with Alex's tail raised in front of my muzzle like that.

Past me probably would've fucked Alex right then and there, in the middle of the rows of books.

But I'm more mature now.

...so I took him to the bathroom first.

It's only by some miracle that I managed to not yelp out while Alex got lodged on my knot.

By the time we uncoupled, I came enough to more than make up for the last two weeks.

Or when he started to bounce up and down as he jerked himself off on me.

STRETCH

I can't say I didn't enjoy it, like, a lot...

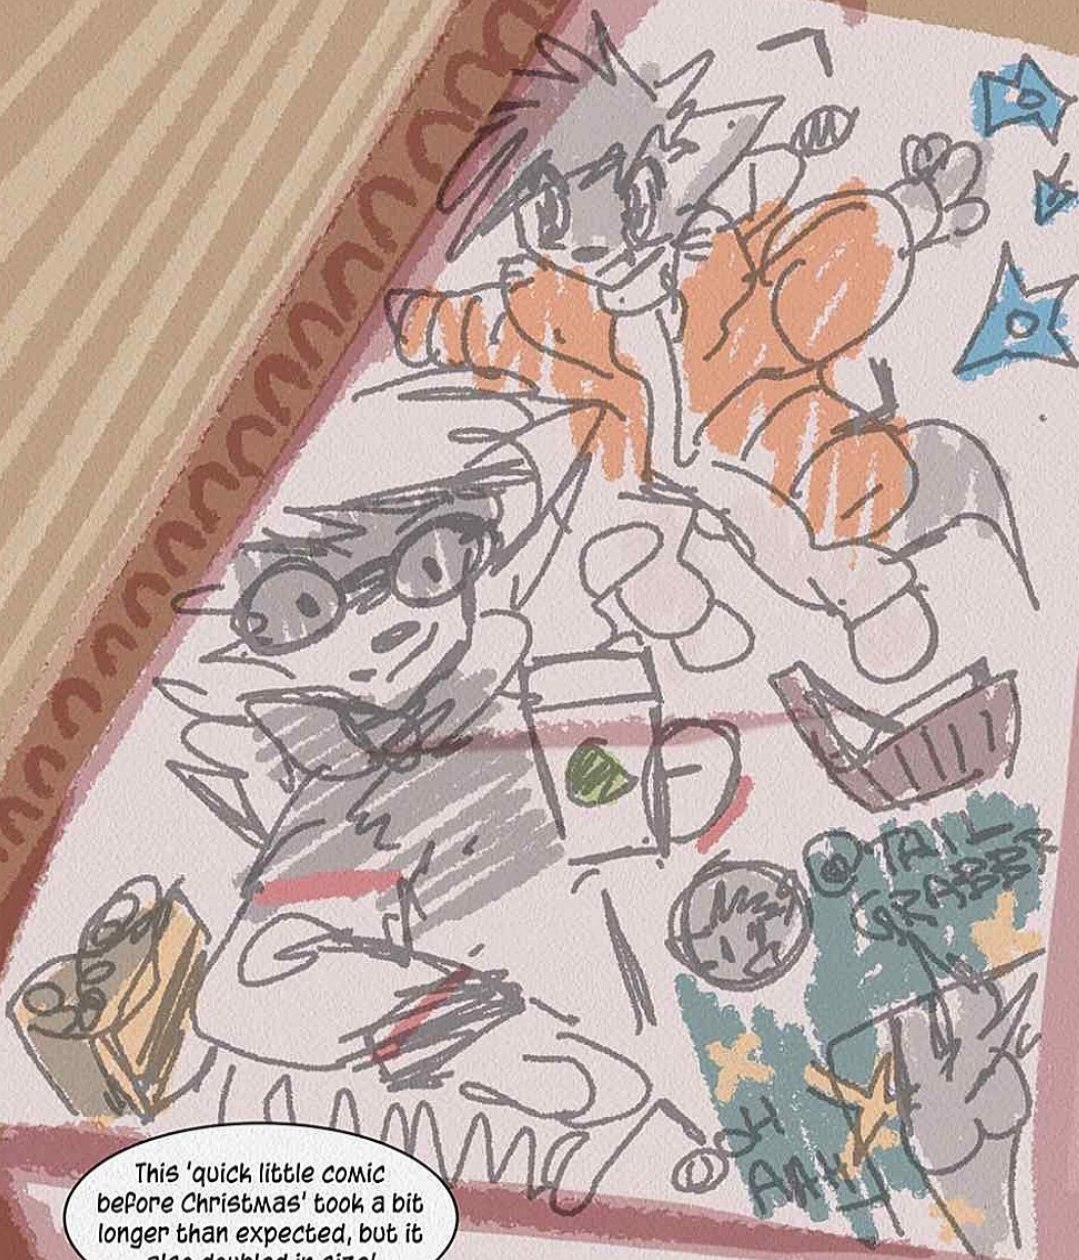

Ugh, can't believe I actually did that again...

Is this what it's like for every horny teenager out there?

This 'quick little comic before Christmas' took a bit longer than expected, but it also doubled in size!

We hope you have fun with it, and please look forward to some non-comic projects from us in the future~
